

Gerhard Fischer is Professor Emeritus and Professor Adjunct of Computer Science, a Fellow of the Institute of Cognitive Science, and was the founder and the director of the Center for Lifelong Learning and Design (L3D) at the University of Colorado at Boulder. He is a member of the Computer Human Interaction Academy and a Fellow of the Association for Computing Machinery. In 2015, he was awarded an honorary doctorate from the University of Gothenburg, Sweden.

His long-term research agenda is focused on quality of life in the digital age, meta-design, cultures of participation, lifelong learning, distributed cognition, and design trade-offs.

Further Information:

- Wikipedia page: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gerhard_Fischer_\(professor\))
- publications at: <http://l3d.cs.colorado.edu/wordpress/people/home-folders/gerhard-fischers-home-page/gerhard-fischers-papers/>